

Holy Trinity Church, First World War Parish Memorial

These men were linked with St. Mary's and Holy Trinity, and their families wanted them to be on the list. They are all on the borough memorial in the Castle Grounds, and some are also on the Charlotteville Memorial, which was at St. Luke's, a chapel linked to Holy Trinity.

Notes: 'Bn' means Battalion, a division of the regiment. 'Queen's' is the Queen's Royal West Surrey Regiment, the local regiment. Sometimes the only known address is of the parents. Occasionally the link with Guildford is not clear, but someone here wanted them to be remembered.
